

masteroil C-Tec Special C2 5W-30

Description

masteroil C-Tec Special C2 5W-30 is an engine oil specifically developed for modern petrol and diesel engines and based on selected HC synthetic base oils. Among other things, it meets the requirements set out in the ACEA C2 specification, with a low sulphated ash (SA) content and reduced HTHS (high temperature, high shear) viscosity.

Application

masteroil C-Tec Special C2 5W-30 protects the particulate filter due to a reduced sulphated ash content and, at the same time, offers large fuel savings potential due to extremely smooth running characteristics and reduced HTHS viscosity. It is used according to the manufacturer's specifications in vehicles with petrol and diesel engines both with and without a turbocharger and diesel particulate filter. This oil is particularly recommended for Peugeot and Citroën diesel engines fitted with a petrol and diesel particulate filter. The recommendation also applies to most Japanese OEMs, including Toyota, Honda, Subaru and Nissan.
